

Ibeto Junior 2020

EVENT GUIDELINES

TEAM FORMATION

- The maximum number of members in a team is 3. Individual submissions are also permitted.
- The team members need not necessarily be from the same institution - cross institution participation is encouraged.
- Every team must have a unique name which must be furnished on request.
- Every team should have an associated teacher.

ELIGIBILITY

- Only school students from classes 7th - 12th (not above 19 years) are permitted to participate in IBeTo Junior.

GENERAL ABSTRACT DETAILS

- The idea can be based on any theme of social relevance.
- It should be technology based and should have a positive impact on society.
- It must be feasible/practical to be realized as a viable solution.
- The social relevance factor is our prime factor of judgement as the product should have appreciable potential to be implemented in the society.
- There are no restrictions on the number of submissions of abstract per team.

EVENT DETAILS

- The ideas sent in as technical innovations must be original, or must be an expansion of an already existing concept based on any socially relevant problem statement.
- 20 teams will be shortlisted to the finals. If the quality and amount of abstracts received are high, there might be a mid-evaluation during the period of the event.
- The selected teams will be intimated through telephone and e-mail. The Excel 2020 Team will not be held accountable for any cases in which shortlisted teams are unavailable for contact or are unreachable at any point of time after the announcement of results.
- The shortlisted teams should submit a 3-minute video explaining the idea by January 26th.
- The event will be conducted on Day 3 of Excel 2020 in which a powerpoint presentation of the idea should be presented in front of the judges for fair valuation.
- Interactive tech classes are to be conducted two days exclusively for the registered teams on which certificates would be issued on attending the session.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Decisions of the judges shall be final and binding.
- The coordinators reserve the right to reject any entry. The reason for selection or rejection will be specified through e-mail.
- Rules are subject to change at any point of time.

REWARDS

- The best ideas chosen by the judges will be awarded with a cash prize worth INR 10,000/- from the organisers.
- Certificate of Participation will be awarded, signed from the concerned authorities.
